

Curriculum Vitae

Armin Bruch

Armin Bruch is a member of the SGL Carbon SE's Board of Management, effective October 1, 2008 (until January 23, 2009 known as SGL Carbon AG). He is responsible for the Business Area Performance Products (PP) and the region Europe. He is also responsible for the groupwide improvement initiative SGL Excellence as well as Corporate Marketing and Advertising. Bruch joined the Company in September 2001 and has been leading the most strong-selling and profitable Business Unit Performance Products since the business year 2005.

Armin Bruch was born on January 22, 1953. After obtaining the degree of Business Administration at the Mainz University of Applied Sciences, Bruch began his professional career at Hoechst AG in 1977. Before he joined the SGL Group, Bruch held various marketing and management positions at Celanese, which split off from Hoechst, in Germany, UK and in the USA. Before he joined SGL he held the position as Vice President of a global Business Line at Celanese.

Armin Bruch is married and has two children.